AWARDS

Each year the ICO conducts an awards program to recognize orchestras, conductors, and volunteers that have demonstrated exceptional achievement. These highly sought-after awards provide local and statewide recognition to both individuals and their organizations. An independent panel of judges reviews materials in March, and awards are announced in late March.

The ICO awards have included the following categories:

- Cultural Leadership Award
- Orchestra of the Year (multiple levels)
- Conductor of the Year (multiple levels)
- Board President of the Year
- Executive Director/General Manager of the Year
- Volunteer of the Year
- Programming of the Year
- Community Relations of the Year
- Guild of the Year
- Marketing Program of the Year
- Education Programming of the Year

Access applications online at www.ilcouncilorchestras.org

Applications are due February 1st of the year

TOWN HALLS

Throughout the season, the ICO hosts Town Hall meetings on a variety of topics

Join your peers from across Illinois and beyond to discuss new ideas, current issues, and to stay connected with the community.

Recent topics have included:

- What does "Public Relations" really mean?
- The Latest on Artistic Planning
- The Latest on Individual Giving Campaigns: What's resonating, what's changed, and the evolution of events and donor stewardship

Town Halls are free to all ICO Member organizations's staff, musicians, board members and volunteers.

All Town Halls take place on Zoom unless otherwise noted.

If you have suggestions for topics you'd like to see discussed, please fill out the online form or email us at info@ilcouncilorchestras.org
